Tocobiol[®], Natural Stability for Healthy Snacking

The demand for healthy snacks like extruded products and nuts is growing, with consumers seeking clean-label options. Yet, these products are highly prone to oxidation, leading to rancidity and shorter shelf life. To preserve quality and meet natural positioning, natural antioxidants are essential.

At Btsa, we offer Tocobiol[®], a natural mixed tocopherols concentrate obtained from non-GMO vegetable oils. The ideal antioxidant for extruded snacks and nuts.

Tocobiol[®]

reliable & versatile performance

- Extends shelf life and maintains product quality
- Resistant to high extrusion temperatures
- Suitable for natural and organic products
- Custom studies and technical support by Btsa experts
